

CAGES

I saw your face and I thought I could love you forever I saw your eyes shining like the morning sun Heard your voice, well you sounded to me like an angel I felt your touch, a thrill I never felt before

You took my heart and locked it away with my wishes You caught my brain and threw it in the deepest sea Laughed at me, just when I went crazy And let me down, the last on you long, long list

Hear the sound
Only hear the clock on the wall
Turn around
Hear you footsteps down in the hall
You bring me down
I'm just tired of counting the bars of your cages there's something lost, lost without returning and while it fades, I'll know it's never coming back you broke my heart, smashed our love into pieces

And let me down, the last on you long, long list

Hear the sound
Only hear the clock on the wall
Turn around
Hear you footsteps down in the hall
You bring me down
I'm just tired of counting the bars of your cages

TIME STOOD STILL

Well, it's late, I should be sleeping in bed But I can't, I'm thinking about what you said

And if I'm wrong to say that there's somebody else Just gimme time to understand that this is your way

I guess the time stood still While I kept on loving you more
I guess the time stood still
And I keep on lovin' you lovin' you lovin' you

And while you're gone, I stay alone in my bed Wondering why, I can't get you out of my head and I had a dream, of you and me alone in the night and it was you who brought a spark to a firing light.

I guess the time stood still
While I kept on loving you more
I guess the time stood still

BACK TO YOU

where have all the good times gone the days were so much brighter we let 'em fade away live was never difficult we were lover never fighters i guess the world has changed as we came out of age oh yeah, it happened all so fast where have all the heroes gone the friends who stood beside us vanished in the dark now th clouds are hiding the sun see the world with our own eyes we're feeling down and out we want to cry out loud oh yeah, i know there's someone waiting out for me here tonight and she shines so bright and when the day is over I'm coming back to you, oh yeah and that's because I love you coming back to you, back to you, back to you that's why I'm coming back to you never felt what I feel know the day takes long and longer I have to go my way there is something in my mind that makes my heart feel stronger I need you so much I want your love, right now now I need your touch, I need your touch right now and when the day is over

I'm coming back to you, oh yeah

that's why I'm coming back to you

NOTHING FROM NOTHING

Some people say, that some hearts are meant to be broken They say these hearts will never find a love again Some people say, there are no right words to be spoken When a good love died and went down to an end

You'll find a way to get by I've done my lessons well I've been where you were before So I got one thing to tell

Nothing from nothing leaves nothing at all, oh baby Nothing from nothing leaves nothing at all, again
Although you're down on your knees
And you're still begging me, please
It leaves nothing at all

You'll never know, what is waiting for you ion the future A life can change as fast as a lightning strikes And if you see a light at the end of the tunnel You think you're through, but maybe it's another train

You hope things are achangin' You know that it's not true Stop giving and start taking 'cause now it's up to you

Nothing from nothing leaves nothing at all, oh baby
Nothing from nothing leaves nothing at all, again
And you're still begging me, please

THE ONE

Still see the shadow in your eyes that night, still smell the teardrops that you've cried but after all this time you're still by my side and I know that you're the only one for me you will always be the one

the one who's with me in the night the one who has always kept me tight you will always be the one, to carry on you know I try to be the perfect man I swear that's what I wanna be And 'though I'm trying doing all I can I'm still that simple man you see

you will always be the one
the one who has always kept me tight

PAMELA

counting the days, counting the nights do I really know what I'm looking for you stole my heart, you've burned my soul hurt so deep, I can't stand it no more do you really love me baby, do you wanna hold me tight will you stay here with me, oh I need you tonight

Pamela, don't ever break my heart
Pamela, don' ever break apart

I gave my heart, you told me lies just like a fool, I was looking out for more now in the end we can't be sure who's to blame in this game of love do you really need me baby, do you wanna stay the night and if you stick here with me baby we can get it right

Pamela, don't ever break my heart
Pamela, don' ever break apart

NOT ENOUGH TEARS

2 am she's lying in bed just another sleepless night the man beside her does not know the secrets she keeps inside about the dreams that come each night dragging her back to the past about the pain she feels inside the fear she can hardly describe, tonight she was hurt long ago no one will ever know who can ever understand the fear for her father's hand not enough tears to cry but so much pain inside if you knew what she's been through you'd cry, cry tonight her father loved her body her mother never dried her tears got no place to hide away through the passin' years

if you knew what she's been through you'd cry, cry tonight

WE ALL BELONG

You're in my dreams, haunt me night after night I feel your heart, it beats close to mine I got you once, why can't get you twice I hope you'll get back in my dreams tonight

Open the door, please let me in
I hold the lock, you hold the key Open the door please let me in I hold the lock, you hold the key, so hold on

I should have known, that you'd leave someday Although I tried so hard to make you, make you stay Oh I feel your heart it's beating close to mine And I've tried so hard, so hard to make you mine, so come on

I hold the lock, you hold the key

We belong to someone We all belong to someone

LET IT BE ME

I heard 'em talk about ourselves they said that our love was nearly over it seemed to be all so clear quite clear for all of them to see and everyone, who looked at me and put his hand up on my shoulder seemed to be so sure that I was the last to know

let it be me
to shelter you and me from all the cold outside
let it be me
to warm you in my hands throughout the longest nights and if you're feeling down and haven't got someone to ease your pain never treat you like I should have done I know I often make mistakes though you always were the only one didn't see the tears right in your face and if you think, you've lost my love and I won't care for you no more I swear that you're the world to me just you my heart, only you

let it be me
to shelter you and me from all the cold outside
let it be me
to warm you in my hands throughout the longest nights

and through all these lonely nights, I will be the one with you we will go this winding road, so let me be

let it be me
to shelter you and me from all the cold outside
let it be me
and if you're feeling down and haven't got someone to ease your pain

AS TIME GOES BY

I will never cry oh i've never shed a tear but as time goes by the more i wish that you were here never thought our love would go in vain never thought that some day it was you to blame and every time i call you always say we just stay friends and 'though it went that far i know i'll love you in the end

never thought that some day it was you to blame

always tried to hide
the feelings i kept inside
but as time goes by
i will learn to cry, i will learn to cry

never thought that some day it was you to blame

always tried to hide
but as time goes by
