

HOLD ON

hold on - hold on - nothing lasts forever
not even the love that you've shared
hold on - hold on - we'll find a way together

good days are gone now where's your lover well she slammed the door and walked away with no goodbyes but you'll sure find another who leads you to a new place who wipes the tears off your face

hold on - hold on -

well it hurts deep inside to be alone now but i tell you it all works out you can put it right don't look back and be strong now keep good times in your mind and a new friend you'll find

THIS LOVE

sometimes i've got fears that you might never come back you see me waiting here was it just a dream
so please don't let him steal your heart away let me know

that you keep your love through all the times ahead cause love fills it all in times of good and bad beware this feelings let `em grab you deep inside let me know, just let me know

through the mist of time with all of our might together oh we stay here two of a kind and i want this love to last forever

every little smile warms like the morning sun and every word that you say i keep it in my heart
so please don't let him steal your heart away

that you hold my life in the palm of your hands i'll never find mv wav without you by my side so take my love let it grow more day by day

so i keep waiting here yeah i'm waiting for a call that you need me still the way that i need you girl

DO YOU BELIEVE IN LOVE

i used to live my life all alone in a daydream used to hide my eyes in the palm of my hands i was afraid of the light that shot through my fingers built up a wall in my mind to pretend i was blind know it takes some time to mend a broken heart maybe someone like you can give me another start so i got tired of wasting my time in the yesterdays i got tired of playing the part of the fool then there were you, broke my defences, found a way you broke the chains around my heart and saved my soul

do you believe in love, i always dreamed of it
waiting the years for this moment to come do you believe in love, we both can work it out i do believe in love
you know it takes two of the same kind back in my room i found myself seeking for answers could this be real or might it just be fantasy you told me there'd be no reasons to worry come on and open your heart, just listen to me, listen to me

WRAPPED IN MUSIC

when the final curtain falls and every little sound turns down in the hall now it's closing time, a time to draw the line and now the lights go down there ain't no doubt, it's over now and there is one thing that pulls us through because every little song we write it's up to you and when you clap your hands to the final applause then everything feels right we had our prime time for a while we played our songs for everyone we gave it all with everything we had to give but now it's the time to wave goodbyes oh oh oh until we meet again i hope that you remember a little bit quite a little bit of every song because each one of them keeps a piece of our own souls reveals a part of us wrapped in music just for you and now the time has come to say goodbye to everybody in the crowd who came tonight each song can be a spark to light a fire in the dark and though the lights turn down you know it won't be over now

LOVE IS JUST A GAME

oh when i look in your eyes i see the magic there if i could be with you thousand of thousand days million of million years love is the strongest thing in the world i hear the city's heart is beating just for us i hear a drum that pounds to our relationship but i never tried to be really with you i just imagined the things that i want us to do

a game without risk
you can only win
love is just a game
a game without risk

all through the years we loved and had been honest to us all through the years we shared good things we've found nobody thought about the real consequence nobody thought about working this out

DON'T ASK WHY

I've been here before
knocking at your door
i wonder if you be there, if you open up for me so here i am again standing in the rain walking down this endless road, longing for your love

don't ask why i'm back again `cause you will know for sure i couldn't find another you, another love

i had to go away although you asked me to stay all the looks that i misread, all the words you said

`cause you will know for sure

you're the guiding light, in the darkest night you're the one to lead me right back home when i'm feeling low; standing lonely in this road you're the one i'm always longing for

`cause you will know for sure

DREAM ON

long before when i was young, my daddy used to say there's a time to come, there's a time to go when you've got to get away and with the times i grew much older, and i realised there's a time to love, there's a time to part and that you can really break my heart oh yeah i got to leave her now oh yeah is this the end

oh yeah this is not the end oh the night that i met you, i felt the love in my heart and the way we cared, and the love we shared was growing right from the start all the days we've been together, you gave me more than i owe look at all the nights, when the time was right just one thing we've gotto do dream on, dream on to your feelings

dream on, dream on to the world but i keep on loving you and i just can't get enough of you now these times are nearly over, no words of love no more no look of your eyes, no more sweet little lies well you've walked through that door now i'm alone and now i see how much you mean to me you're tossing and turning every night there's a feeling that i just can't hide

RAIN

rain, falling on my head it's like a friend of mine i never had did you ever feel it running down your back rain, it can be like a knife it cuts away the pain and gives a new sence to my life once i was young i heard these words my mother sung

rain gives the cool water when the fever runs high
when the fever runs high, rain rain, sometimes eases your mind washing away the pain bringing love you couldn't find you were waiting so long, but finally it's real rain, it can open your eyes washing away the clouds and then the sun is in the sky the seed is waiting for birth, hoping for more to come

CALLING

check her out and think it all over, but it's allright don't you remember she once let you down, but it's allright realize that she's fooling around, but it's allright but I hear a voice who's calling me now (from faraway) some sound I've never heard before you can't be sure, that she's keeping her promise, but it's allright and she might not be your ace in the whole, but it's allright it's not long ago since she has broken yopur heart, but it's allright now she's prtending again, right from the start, but it's allright but I hear a voice who's calling me now

(from faraway) some sound I've never heard before

well I hear you calling, crying through the night yeah I hear you calling for me to turn things right and I hear you calling, crying through the night well I hear you calling, tonighttonight oh she'll never stop `till you're down on your knees, but it's alright she'll never stop untill you agree, but it's alright a misterious light shines in her eyes, but it's alright be aware or you will be surprised, but it's alright

but I hear a voice who's calling me now
(from faraway) some sound I've never heard before and although you try to get back on your feet, but it's alright as far as you try you can't make ends meet, but it's alright so take my advice and leave her alone, but it's alright watch out boy she's gonna break all your bones, but it's alright

but I hear a voice who's calling me now
(from faraway) some sound I've never heard before

and I hear you calling, crying through the night

CAN'T STOP

lotta time `till i realised there ain't no other you you ran away and left me alone you said there was someone new day after day night after night i hung on the phone and i thought time after time step by step that you would come back, oh come back to me can't stop, can't stop loving you can't stop, i'm loving you deep from my heart can't stop, can't stop wanting you can't stop, and no one can tear us apart does it feel just the same way with the other one and does he touch you everywhere like i have done the further you go, the more i know i can't let you go please hold me again as much as you can leave him alone, come back to me

some flowers that fade away an old photograph feelings that never were noticed the end of a show

here and everywhere i wear the clothes of a young man but i feel so old

subway noices, old friends voices it all doesn't matter to me dry champagne and the falling rain still can't believe that i'm free some memories of broken heart a dream full of pain i know that i should forget but i've lost my faith don't know what tomorrow brings 'cause i'm all alone i'm feeling so unsure and i've lost my way
